

Kuaishou Information Security Management Measures

Based on the actual situation of the Company, these measures aim to standardize the information security management of Kuaishou, its related companies and regional branches (branches, offices representative offices), ensure the continuous, reliable and normal operation of its information system, provide users with timely, stable and quality information technology services, effectively control information security risks, effectively guarantee the confidentiality, integrity and availability of its various information systems and information, and raise the information security responsibilities and awareness of all of its employees.

These measures are applicable to any information security works carried out by any internal departments of Kuaishou and its related companies and regional branches (branches, offices and representative offices).

The major areas are:

1. Information security management system infrastructure
2. Personnel security
3. Data security
4. Asset security
5. Password security
6. Physical and environmental safeguards
7. Network security
8. Development and operations security
9. Outsource security
10. Information security incident management